Plantek Company Profile

Plantek as a brand was founded in early 2001 as a sole proprietor under the Business Names Registration Act. As the brand took shape and to be precise on its aspirations .

PlantekConsultants was also registered later in 2001. As the brand continued to grow, of necessity and in line with the vision of the founder, the legal status of Plantek was upgraded to a Limited Liability Company (LLC) in 2014 giving birth to a trade/ Practice name PlantekLimited. At the same time and in the unification process of Plantek and Plantek Consultants the resulting PlantekLimited legally acquired Plantek Consultants as its Trade / Practice name going forward. This change and hence unification was intended to provide unequalled service delivery, expanding the frontiers and to meet today and tomorrow's ever changing professional and business dynamics. Therefore, PlantekLimited and PlantekConsultants are made of the same DNA material called the PLANTEK BRAND in the status of Father and Son respectively enspousing the same good core values enshrined in the company/ Brand profile provided. The documentation to support the above described legal and business processes are attached hereto under the legal documentation clause.

The company handles consultancy assignments in feasibility studies, design, Project Management, Supervision, Bid preparation and Technical Evaluation of Construction Projects for the Public, Private sectors, Community based organizations and NGOs.

Due to the multi-disciplinary nature of most building projects, the company has in place an arrangement with reputable firms and companies in related disciplines to set up design consortia to offer clients a comprehensive consultancy service including project management, building economics, civil-structural engineering, electrical/mechanical engineering, land surveys and investigations and other specialized fields depending on the assignment at hand.

PlantekLimited further helps the client in documenting the Physical Planning, Environmental analysis & assessment requirements of the land.

We are therefore capable of providing you with the expertise you need for the intended activities in various parts of Uganda.
